1. [REDACTED] Comment. The shipping of 85-mm AA guns from the Strausberg air force depot to Ellerholz and vice versa [REDACTED] (air force) has been previously observed. As only 76-mm AA guns have so far been observed at East German airfields, possibly an error in observation occurred. Efforts have been initiated to clarify this point.
2. [REDACTED] Comment. Chromic acid is also used for galvanic hard chrome plating. A hard chrome plating installation for turbo jet impellers was reported to exist in the jet engine repair shop at Jueterbog-Altes Lager.
